NEWSLETTER

Newsletter will definitely go out this quarter, most likely within the next two weeks. It did not come together for an August distribution.

OLD BUSINESS

LEADERSHIP GLENDIVE PROGRAM

Program begins Wednesday with Tourism. Eighteen individuals are enrolled.

CAREER FAIR – November 4th

(Committee: Tim Wall, Christina Miller, Scott Sanders, Staci Knuths/GMC, Lonnie Cross, Darla Handran)
Committee members met on August 26 to discuss. Invitation documents for Schools and Businesses were reviewed and modified. Packets will be distributed to schools and businesses within the next two weeks. October 9 was set as the initial deadline for returning forms. This will allow committee members time to do some personal invites to businesses and follow-up with schools. Tim discovered that Nano iPods are out of the price range and is working with Tyge at Boss on prices for other popular teen electronic gadgets.

OSHA 10-HR GENERAL INDUSTRY COURSE

Information will be included in the newsletter to see if there is interest in the community. Scott volunteered to serve on this committee with Kim and MaryAnn.

NEW BUSINESS

No new business.

ANNOUNCEMENTS None

Jerry announced that the City projects are underway.
